RELAXING PRIOR to concert tour that will include parts of Europe as well as the United States, Mr. and Mrs. Ignace Hilsberg dangle their feet in the pool at the Colony here. VILLAGE 'NATURAL HOME OF CULTURE'

By GEORGE LAINE

A highly-reputed concert pianist and teacher visited Palm Springs this week and envisioned a day in the not-too-distant future when the Village would become "a natural home for things of culture."

Ignace Hilsberg, whose pupils have included John Browning, Johnny Green and a host of others, said that Palm Springs is the logical choice for such a center.

"YOU HAVE IN Palm Springs," said the stocky pianist, "the kind of physical climate to create an arts center that would embrace the best of music, art, dream and literature."

"Places like Aspen and Tanglewood are handicapped by limitations of their weather. Palm Springs has no such limitations."

The Village has another limitation—much more restricting than that of meteorological variance—but Hilsberg sees an end to that, based on revised reactions to changes over the 10-year span in which he has been a regular vacationer at the Colony here.

"The culture climate has been less dependable than the physical climate here," he said. "But that is changing."

HILSBURG, WHO has played command appearances before Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the last of Russia's czars, the Shah of Iran, the King of Greece and other figures, feels the presence in Palm Springs of such things as the Music Society, Community Concert Association, Playhouse Guild, Desert Art Center, and other organizations ostensibly dedicated to a furtherance of cultural growth here were "signposts on the road to an enlightened community."

"Within the framework of these many organizations, I've named only a relative few—are people who are, I'm sure, determined to see creation of an environment in which cultured things can flourish."

THE POLISH-BOR virtuoso said that "outstanding persons in all of the art fields already visit this community. The community hasn't yet realized the value of these visitors."

Hilsberg said that not only would the community be able to utilize the talents of the famous guests who now visit here but that creation of such a center here would "attract many of the famous names in all of the arts."

Hilsberg, whose forthcoming tour includes appearances with many of the major symphonies of Europe, is preparing for the international joint with a two-week "complete relaxation" stay at the Colony. With him is his wife, who will also make the tour.

A pupil of Madame Annette Epifani—and a close confidante of Josef Hofmann and an acquaintance of the Russian reaction at Geneva to the Western proposals.

Aides said they expected Hilsberg to report quickly to President Eisenhower on the Paris meeting, possibly making a helicopter hop to Gettysburg where the Chief Executive is week-ending.

Eisenhower, here for a leisurely week end at his farm, had to cancel plans for an afternoon round of golf Friday because the course was too soggy from heavy Thursday rains for comfortable play.

GLENN FORD GETS BIRTHDAY 'SURPRISE'—SUIT FOR DIVORCE

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI)—One of Hollywood's longest and supposedly happiest marriages was finished today with the announcement that former actress-dancer Eleanor Powell has filed for a divorce here from actor Glenn Ford.

The former screen star handed her husband a surprise on his 43rd birthday Friday when she filed for the divorce in Superior Court, citing "extreme cruelty."

A friend of Ford said Miss Powell's action took the actor by complete surprise.

Attorney-General Names Kettman To State Group

Attorney General Stanley Mosk has appointed Palm Springs Police Chief August G. Kettman to a special state committee on Criminal Statistics.

Chief Kettman was one of three Southern California men named to the committee, and three other men were named from the Northern California area.

His acceptance of the position has been approved by City Manager Dan Wagner, and he will serve for one year.

Bartlett New Owner

Palm Garden Sale Announced

Purchase of the Palm Garden Hotel, North Palm Canyon Drive, was announced today by Rex Bartlett, prominent Sunset Strip realtor and businessman.

Bartlett, who purchased the hotel from Edward S. and Mary Jane Shattuck for a sum "in the neighborhood" of $300,000, said he now plans hotel and apartment developments here valued at about $650,000.

A COFFEE SHOP is projected for the Palm Canyon Drive frontage, he said, in connection with a building to be occupied by Bartlett's real estate firm, and an insurance-escrow office and commercial hotel rooms. Cost of this project is estimated at $250,000, bringing the real estate man's total investment here to about $1 million.

Bartlett's company currently has offices in West Hollywood, where he is co-owner of various area apartment houses. He also owns properties in Oklahoma, West Virginia and England.

Bartlett is senior past president of the West Hollywood Realty Board and a state director of the California Real Estate Association.

Red Rejection Of West Plan Seen at Meet

Concessions Seen But 'Package Deal' Given Little Chance

PARIS. (UPI)—Diplomatic observers predicted today Russia would turn down the West's "package" deal on Berlin and Germany at the Geneva Conference this month.

They said the West had no alternative to offer now and that the Geneva meeting at best would postpone the ultimate showdown over Berlin called for by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev last Nov. 27.

WESTERN DIPLOMATS in Paris said privately they expected just enough concessions from Russia at the foreign ministers conference to force the Allies to attend a summit conference.

In Washington, Secretary of State Christian A. Herter was expected home from Paris today amid some diplomatic suspicion concerning the "complete agreement" the Western powers claim they reached on how to negotiate with Russia on Berlin, Germany and European security.

High American officials here acknowledged that the Western Big Four at Paris managed to present a united front by agreeing on a "package plan" of general objectives but stopping short of defining it to the point where disagreements become apparent.

THUS THE GAP between the "flexible" British approach and the far more conservative German and French position—with the United States somewhere in between—remains to be narrowed after the Allies receive the initial Russian reaction at Geneva to the Western proposals.

Aides said they expected Herter to report quickly to President Eisenhower on the Paris meeting, possibly making a helicopter hop to Gettysburg where the Chief Executive is week-ending.

Eisenhower, here for a leisurely week end at his farm, had to cancel plans for an afternoon round of golf Friday because the course was too soggy from heavy Thursday rains for comfortable play.

Ship Burns As Fireboat Refuses Aid

Norwegian Captain Lashes Vancouver For 'Red Tape'

WEST VANCOUVER, B.C. (UPI)—An explosion and fire swept the 3,300-ton Norwegian freighter Ferngulf Friday night while red tape prevented a fireboat going to its rescue.

The ship was saved by its captain, two mates, volunteers from the Canadian destroyer escort Saguenay, crews of small fishing vessels, and the government fisheries patrol boat A. P. Knight. It was towed into port shortly before midnight.

The Ferngulf, partly loaded with lumber and en route from Vancouver to New Westminster, B.C., was heavily damaged by fire and explosion which Capt. William Alcher said apparently originated in an engine cylinder.

WITNESSES SAID a Vancouver fireboat failed to respond to SOS messages while the freighter burned.

"I sent an SOS for a fireboat and doctors as soon as the explosion occurred," Alcher told a reporter. "We were told by the City of Vancouver that we were outside their limits."

HE SAID THAT more than an hour later he received a message that a fireboat and doctor were coming.

The Ferngulf burned for nearly four hours before the fire was brought under control.

Godfrey Gets Up After Surgery

NEW YORK (UPI)—Arthur Godfrey, in "good spirits" and "excellent condition," was reported bouncing back today from a five-hour operation to remove a cancerous tumor from his left lung.

PRINCE, A SWIMMING CAT, looks on as Mayor Frank Bogert signs a proclamation, labeling the week of May 3 through 10 as "Be Kind to Animals Week" in Palm Springs. According to Prince's friend, Tamara Tippet, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Thompson, owners, Prince won the and the "Puss 'n Boots Bronze Award" for his unflinching habit of taking a daily swim in the Thompson's pool. Prince started his life as an inmate of the Palm Springs Animal Shelter and he's interested in the success of the current Palm Springs Animal Protective League drive for construction of a new animal shelter—which is one of the reasons for Be Kind to Animals Week, a week dedicated to man's four-legged friends. Assembly Gets Bill Asking Death Penalty

Three Measures Bid For 'Get Tough' Policy on Narcotics

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Legislation which would send dope peddlers who specialize in selling to children to the gas chamber has been introduced in the Assembly.

Assemblyman Clayton A. Dills (D-Gardena) introduced a bill Friday which would stiffen the penalties on most narcotics offenses and would specify death for adults who sell heroin to minors 18 years old and younger.

DILL'S MEASURE was one of three proposed in the legislature to help police "get tough" with the narcotics problem.

Under Dills' plan, the minimum penalty for selling dope to minors would be advanced to 10 years and the minimum for narcotics peddling to adults would be upped to five years.

PRESENT law permits the judge to sentence first-time narcotics offenders to less than one year in county jail. The maximum sentence for any narcotics crime is 10 years to life in prison.

Assemblyman William Biddick (D-Stockton) introduced a bill which would permit the admission in narcotics cases of evidence obtained by police officers through methods prohibited by state laws against illegal search and seizure.

Assemblyman Charles E. Chapel (R-Inglewood) offered a plan which would authorize police to give naline tests to persons arrested in criminal charges who are suspected of being narcotics users. Naline is a drug which is used for determining if a person is addicted to dope.

'Lynch' Victim's Mom Threatened In Speech Effort

POPLARVILLE, Miss. (UPI)—The mother of kidnapped rape suspect Mack Charles Parker has received threats against her life and the FBI has been asked to protect her, Negro leaders report.

The woman, Mrs. Eliza Parker, was to address a Negro rally protesting her son's abduction from jail here a week ago, but failed to show up after being threatened, they said.

About 50 Negroes attended the rally to protest the seizure of the 23-year-old Parker by a white mob. Parker, accused of robbing a pregnant white mother, has been missing since the mob pistol-whipped him and dragged him screaming from his cell. He is believed to have been lynched.

Bus Chartered

Villagers Invited To Zaddie's Flight

Villagers were today invited to watch Zaddie Bunker, Palm Springs' flying great-grandmother, take her first ride in a supersonic jet.

Chamber of Commerce officials have chartered a bus that will carry 41 passengers to an open house program at George Air Force Base on May 16.

THAT'S THE DAY that Zaddie's scheduled to whip through the sound barrier aboard an Air Force jet fighter.

The villagers who take the trip will also witness a spectacular air show and the official christening of the "Palm Springs Fighter Squadron."

Adopted by the City of Palm Springs, the squadron is leaving for Spain, carrying the name of the city emblazoned on the sides of all its planes.

CHAMBER MANAGER Jimmy Cooper said the cost of the open house "package tour" to George AFB is $6 per person, including bus transportation from Palm Springs to the Victorville base and luncheon at the officer's club.

The chartered bus will leave the El Mirador Hotel garage at 9 a.m. and return here at about 6:30 p.m.

Ike Selection Of 'Career Man' Seen

Luce Resignation May 'Tighten Up' Senate Routine

WASHINGTON, AP — Senator George D. Aiken (R-Vt.) predicted today President Eisenhower would pick a "pretty good career diplomat" as ambassador to Brazil to run the Senate gauntlet behind Clare Boothe Luce.

The Senate Foreign Relations committee said in an interview the dispute which ended in Mrs. Luce resigning after winning Senate confirmation will "tighten up" Senate consideration of future appointees.

LIKE OTHER senators, Aiken doubted that any Senate move would be made to try to censure Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) for the way in which he challenged the Luce nomination.

Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.) said the Senate should "censure or condemn" Morse because he called Mrs. Luce's physician to ask whether she had received psychiatric treatment.

MRS. LUCE RESIGNED with regret Friday, advising the President she felt it was "no longer possible" to accomplish the mission in Brazil because of the "usly charges" raised by Morse. She said she expected Morse to continue "harassment" as chairman of the Senate Subcommittee on Latin-America if she went to Brazil.

The Senate approved Mrs. Luce's nomination 79 to 11 over the objections of Morse, who was particularly angry about her 1944 charge that President Franklin D. Roosevelt "kicked" the country into World War II.

THE 35-YEAR-OLD former congresswoman, playwright and ambassador to Italy then sparked a new wave of controversy by saying her troubles began when Morse was "kicked in the head by a horse."

The senator retorted that this statement merely proved his contention that Mrs. Luce showed an "old, old pattern of emotional instability."

SHADOW VILLAGE PROJECT STARTS

PALM DESERT — Construction was launched this week on the first phase of Shadow Village, a project that will eventually include the erection of 385 homes at a total cost of about $6½-million.

Builder-developer in the encompassing project is the Sproul Homes, Incorporated, of Colorado Springs. A model home of three bedroom ranch construction is already on the Shadow Village site. Seventeen vastly different "desert-designed" plans are to be used in the custom home construction project.

"THIS IS A LARGE project," Sproul said, "but we consider it the kind of challenge we have the greatest success with. We feel that the size and quality of the development we are constructing will result in a valuable contribution to the growth of Palm Desert."

The thoroughly-planned Shadow Village community will feature wide, curved boulevards with concrete curbs and gutters, restrictions to maintain property valuations, completely-mapped recreational facilities to include a huge, Olympic pool and a park-like environment.

Located within the Shadow Village is the Most Sacred Heart Catholic Church and churches for other faiths are to be found within close range.

THE SPROUL FIRM has established a firm position in U.S. building circles, now being ranked in the first ten construction companies in America. In addition to homes, they build schools, office buildings and shopping centers and have received many coveted awards for design, workmanship and value.

Holladay Realty Corporation of Palm Desert is exclusive agent for the Shadow Village development. Trenton Humphrey is general contractor for the development and Bill Phillips is sales manager.

Area Building Value in April Is $503,739

New construction in the unincorporated county area ringing Palm Springs was valued at $503,739 for the month of April, County Building Director C. G. Bixel said today.

Bixel said the area north of Palm Springs marked $297,710 worth of new construction while the area to the south had $61,358 worth of new building.

New dwellings accounted for the biggest share of the month's total. Permits were issued for 44 new homes, valued at $339,039.

The average length of a truck trip in the United States is 10.1 miles, according to the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads.

Rachmanoff — Hilsberg doesn't feel that the thing he envisions for Palm Springs is an unusual result.

"THERE HAS BEEN a transition coming in the United States for at least three decades," he said. "While we still need to take greater interest in the realities of financial and other support for superb students of all the arts, the situation today is greatly improved over what it was when I arrived in this country."

Hilsberg came here in 1923 and went directly to a faculty post at Julliard Academy in New York City.

He still plays many concerts annually—one of the treasures of his memory was his 1953 appearance as soloist with the Reading, Pa., Symphony Orchestra when he

SMC Women's Golf Association Holds Final Play

PALM DESERT — The Women's Golf Association of the Shadow Mountain Club staged its last game of the winter season this week with prize for "low putts" going to Jean Wood, who had 27 putts for the 18 hole play.

Betty Ives, Ruth Gerlach and June Crux tied for low gross. Each carded 71.

Thelma Thompson won low net with a 49.

Ruth Gerlach was the trophy winner in the first flight match play for April. Vera Dragan was runner-up. Helen Teate was second flight trophy winner. Jean Wood was runner-up. Alma Smith won in the third flight. Ann Schutz was runner-up.

Fairgrounds Enlargement Still Possible

The state has agreed to hold for an additional year, an allotment to Riverside County of $60,000 of state fair funds for the acquisition of the date garden adjoining the county fair grounds in Indio.

Notified of the agreement this week by County Counsel Ray T. Sullivan, Jr., the Board of Supervisors adopted a resolution which will extend for a year the availability of the state funds for the pending purchase.

The county has so far been unable to come to definite terms with the owner of the property.

VISITOR STILL HUNTS PEKINESE LOST LAST SUNDAY

A Palm Springs winter visitor is still seeking her lost pekinese dog, and she's offering a $100 reward to anyone who returns her family pet.

She asked that anyone knowing the whereabouts of her family pet call the Holiday House, FA 4-9956, or Los Angeles, DU 9-9640.

Summer Burning Date Set

Permits Start Monday

With the summer burning period nearing—permits may be obtained from May 4 on—Fire Chief Bill Leonosio today warned Villagers of hazards involved in such practice.

"Those who can," he said, "should take advantage of the city's rubbish collection teams or take their trash to the city's waste disposal site."

FOR THOSE WHO must burn, the chief had other words.

Emphasizing the hazard created by gusty desert winds which can fan up embers of fires that "are seemingly dead," Chief Leonosio said that:

—Burners should first get a permit.

—BURNING SPOTS should be selected away from buildings and a spot around the burn site cleared.

—Don't try to burn too much at one time.

—Have pails of water ready and a rake or wet broom.

—When finished, soak the embers with water.

Golden Wedding To Be Observed By Richards'

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Legions of friends from the desert area as well as a host of guests from four other states will honor Mr. and Mrs. David W. Richards on their Golden Wedding Anniversary here Sunday.

The couple, who moved here from Los Angeles last year, were wed in Portland, Ore., May 4, 1909. Both consider themselves Indians, however.

The anniversary pair have three children — two sons and a daughter — and four grandchildren. One son, Edward, lives in Desert Hot Springs where he is the owner of the Hi There Motel, Two Bunch Palms and Cuyamaca.

Due to aid in the Sunday celebration are guests from such Southern locales as San Carlos, Los Angeles, Arcadia, San Gabriel and La Puente. Out-of-staters will include representatives from Albuquerque, N. M.; Portland, Ore.; Lewiston, Ida.; Tacoma and Seattle, Wash., and Lake Worth, Fla.

Idyllwild Bear Festival Gets Recognition

In an effort to assist the Idyllwild Chamber of Commerce in its endeavor to tag the "Idyllwild Bear Festival" held annually at the mountain resort for the past three years as the official bear festival of the state, the Board of Supervisors adopted a resolution this week urging Senator Nelson S. Dilworth and Assemblyman Lee Backstrand to try to obtain from the senate and the assembly a joint resolution recognizing the event and commending the C of C for the initiation it has displayed in initiating the celebration.

The C of C pointed out that the state of California was once known as the Bear Flag Republic and is now known the world over as the Golden Bear State.

Samuel King Death Reported

Village residents were saddened this week with the news that death had claimed former Hawaiian Governor Samuel Wilder King, an honorary member of the Palm Springs Real Estate Board. King was made an honorary life member of the local board in 1956 when The Press, then the president of the DESRE, visited Hawaii.

The reality president had been named a "goodwill ambassador" on her mission by Palm Springs and one of her first actions on reaching the islands was to present King with his honorary membership.

CHORAL PORTION OF SPRING CONCERT RATED EXCEPTIONAL; ALL EXCELLENT

By GEORGE LAINE

Good concerts and recitals are rarely enjoyed experiences because of three major factors—good musicians playing a good program before a good audience — and a number of smaller, less significant aspects.

The choral portion of the Spring Concert presented Wednesday night in Palm Springs High School Auditorium was such a concert.

THIS ISN'T to say that the band and orchestral portion of the program wasn't good. By junior high school standards, the instrumentalists delivered a well-rounded program that was well played and well received.

The A Capella Choir and the smaller singing units that were taken from it transcended the limitation of a junior high school classification. In fact, in the main, the young voices of this 100-member-plus chorus proved themselves the peers of more than a handful of high school groups.

BECAUSE I HAVE been critical of the content of some musical programs that have been presented here this season, I'd like to evaluate briefly the merits of the Coffman concert program.

Director Hugh Givens (about whom more later) went to the masters for the bulk of his program. According to the best of present-day educational theory on such matters, you're supposed to program "things the children enjoy" — like Rogers and Hammerstein, Gilbert and Sullivan, Friml and, if carried to its logical extreme, eventually rock and roll. (They all have their place but they're not the total musical pie by any stretch of the imagination.)

The youngsters' that composed this A Capella Choir at the Coffman school responded to the Givens selections with enthusiasm and understanding.

IT ISN'T POSSIBLE to evaluate the entire program sung by this organization although it certainly is merited.

Included in the program, however, were some beautiful choral

"standards" — like Bach's "Gloria Now to Thee Be Given," Palestrina's "O Bon Jesu" and Brahms' "Snow White Dove."

There were also some melodies that most choirs only know about and, perhaps because they "know" about them, never attempt.

DARIUS MILHAUD has been a controversial figure in music for more than two decades because of such things as his unusual "Tale of Two Cities." The junior high students not only tackled the "Elegie" from that work but mastered, in the main, the repeated time changes and the tonal variations that the composer utilized. This is not a "kid's" selection. But this junior high chorus sang it with confidence and with vital enthusiasm.

I haven't seen Hindemith's name on a program since I've been in Palm Springs but I saw it Wednesday night when the chorus sang his "In Winter." This isn't the kind of song you can sing at a Lions Club meeting but it is a very important sample of some of the changes that have been wrought in vocal (and in orchestral) music in this century. The dissonances that are employed in this are sometimes unwelcome and yet the choirs dispatched it, with seeming ease.

There were other evidences of a high degree of musicianship in this choir, notably in some of the smaller combinations.

A TRIPLE TRIO, composed of sopranos Diane Hechter, Mary Lou Nickerson, Carol Paul, Karen Rasmussen and Kathy Shepard and altos Janet Fahrner, Sharon Linville, Jane Lillibridge and Barbara Perri, delivered a delightfully pleasant interpretation of Purcell's "In These Delightful Pleasant Groves," and had minute difficulty with a tricky "Scherzo" by Salieri before finishing with authority.

Young Cyli Teitelbaum did more than sing — with a simple beauty — the ancient Hebrew song "Rock of Ages." She also demonstrated some rare aspects of good vocal style. (I don't know who her teacher is, but someone has taught this girl to breathe correctly and merits a real congratulation. The results are both excellent and unusual.)

ANOTHER SINGER with a great deal of promise is Merle Moore, who sang the solo portions of the English folk melody "Black Is the Color of My True Love's Hair." He has a beautiful quality in his voice, a sweetness of tone and an ability to interpret — to understand a song — that is often missing in vocal presentations. His top notes were for baritone voice, which he is not. But the bottom of his register was superb.

The team of a dozen madrigal singers — including Lynne Hamerslag, Oudoll Rackov, Cyli Teitelbaum, Judy Coletti, Cathy Givens, Roberta Sherrill, Robert Franks, Gary Marx, Richard Morse, Gary Beebe, Merle Moore and Eric Teitelbaum — sang three madrigals and a Russian tune, all in a well-paced, thoroughly-enjoyable presentation.

GIVENS HAS DONE more with this junior high group than most conductors achieve with choruses many years their seniors. The presentation by the choir was, in its totality, a wonderful experience. And it was, at once, a solid testimonial to the professionalism of Givens.

The testimonial is all the more significant when viewed in the light of the circumstance. The voices that Givens has to work with are the trickiest they'll be in the lifetimes of their owners. A boy who is a tenor at the start of the semester may be a bass at the conclusion.

The voices, as presented in the high school Wednesday night, held indications of these basic vocal facts. They also held another quality peculiar to young voices — a sort of sweet roundness of tone that enhanced everything they sang.

THE ORCHESTRAL phase of the program was good in the most part although I feel that some explanation is due for the elimination of Schumann's "Happy Farmer" from the program.

The orchestra was strongest on "Marching Cadets" and on "The Clock." It was weakest on "Heigh Ho" and "The Merry Widow" which are both so well known that the lack of bright pace was readily apparent to the audience.

RICHARD DAHLGREN, who conducted the band presentation, does have some exceptional talent with which to work. I would classify Robert Franks as one of the best young pianists I have heard in recent months. He gave a quite sensitive performance of Rachmaninoff's C Sharp Minor Prelude that indicated he could make some indelible impressions here — and perhaps elsewhere — if he keeps his interest high.

Other soloists in the orchestral portion of the program included saxophonist Charlotte Larrieu, who played Davenport's "Lavetta" with good tone; trumpet player Alan Johansen, who played Vender Cook's "Orion" with assurance, and violinist Evelyn Hill, who played Danel's "Air Varié."

AS IN THE HIGH school concert last Friday, even the parents stayed away in great droves from this performance. The house appeared to have 200 to 250 persons in the audience, not nearly enough of a representation for the 150-plus youngsters who performed.

I'm not angry with the parents or Villagers in general for their failure to attend these concerts. The emotion I feel isn't anger but sorrow.

When It Takes Moxie

WASHINGTON, D. C. — All afternoon they sat there, side by side bending their heads to confer, nodding in agreement, freezing their expressions to refrain from giving away their thoughts.

Anybody tempted to think that voting on Labor affairs is cut and dried would not have thought so when watching the two U. S. Senators from West Virginia where the high mountaineer spirit of independence fights with the high authority of Labor leadership.

POLITICAL COURAGE, is a relative thing. It takes little of it for men from Nevada and Idaho, or Mississippi and Georgia to support anti-boss Labor measures such as the one which Senator McClellan was laying before the Senate. But for West Virginia Senators to defy the union chiefs takes plenty of what is called in the sporting circles—moxie.

Never mind how Randolph and Boyd finally decided. The point is that they sat there and weighed the evidence in deep and earnest contemplation. What a contrast they made! Robert Byrd, just past 40, is delicate of limb and feature, deeply religious extremely solemn, a self-made young man who knows from personal experience how unromantic, how grinding poverty can be, and how very much the arrival of trade unionism meant to his people.

JENNINGS RANDOLPH, in his vigorous mid-30's is florid of complexion and often of oratory, a man of outflowing friendship and bonhomie, who came to the House of Representatives during the New Deal, and came this year to the Senate after more than a decade in private enterprise.

If you think that the evidence on Labor legislation is black vs. white, and that the moral issue is right vs. wrong, you would not have thought so after listening two hours to the Senate debate. These were some of the arguments that swayed the minds of men:

BY LAUSCHE of Ohio: That the right to do business is just as sacred in his conception of Liberty as the right to free speech. Hence, he would support legislation to outlaw Labor picketing when it takes the form of business-busting.

By Kennedy of Massachusetts: That competition is the nature of the American economy. There is Business vs. Business, a battle in which thousands of firms go bankrupt every year. There is Business vs. Labor unions. It is a running fight in which business tries to avoid being organized, and in which unions try to sign up all possible members. The Federal government must not outlaw peaceful picketing, which is the union's best weapon.

BY McCLELLAN of Arkansas: That organizational picketing, even when peaceful, is used for blackmail. Many a business is coerced into signing union contracts which benefit not the worker but the racketeer. He had a thousand witnesses before his Rackets Committee to prove the point.

By Curtis of Nebraska: That McClellan was right. By refusing to cross a picket line at the Waldorf Astoria hotel, the Teamsters Brotherhood had thrown their weight into a Barber Shop dispute and isolated one of the greatest hotels in the country. The Teamsters, by their arbitrary use of power, could almost as easily isolate a city.

BY DIRKSEN of Illinois: That McClellan was right. Dirksen read to the silent Senate floor a letter in which a union spokesman threatened by sinister but legalistic insinuations to break a small businessman unless he agreed to sign a union contract, without regard to the wishes of his workers.

By Kennedy: That McClellan was wrong. McClellan couldn't see a union without seeing a racketeer. Dirksen and Curtis were talking about misuses of union power. Kennedy himself, said Dirksen, was as much against rackets and misused power as McClellan. Curtis, Dirksen and anybody else.

KENNEDY WAS willing to legislate against Labor crime, said Kennedy, but not willing to legislate against Labor itself on the argument that all Labor was criminal. The right to organize, the right to picket, the right to bargain must be protected if Liberty and economic improvement are to survive.

By McClellan: That Kennedy was talking nonsense. He, John McClellan had never said that all Labor is criminal. Most persons, in or out of the Labor Movement, are law-abiders. But criminal laws must be passed against criminals, and the McClellan Committee had proved how the crooks had taken over the unions.

WHY PERMIT force and shake-down and blackmail in Labor organization? The decent union organizers didn't need these things. Only the crooks needed them. The Senate stands on trial! The Senate must not wash its hands like Pontius Pilate of this responsibility. The Senate must not pass the buck of Labor reform to Ethics Committees of the unions. What do Hoffa and that bunch care about ethics?

This is how the tremendous debate carried on. To Senators in the struggle, it was a thrilling contest. To reporters in the press gallery it was an exhilarating spectacle. But to Senators trying to decide what was right, and how to do the right, it was a tiring ordeal.

My bankroll may be thin again.

It's riding high on Finnegan.

Pardon me, but this Derby Day and when they stage the Run for the Roses, I always like to engage in a little illegal activity—making book.

But don't blow a gasket getting over here, Mr. Rice. It's just my left hand betting against my right. Mind bets.

BUT I LIKE horses that you can rhyme. Like a few years ago I said "away out yonder, there goes Ponder," and later, "a bet that's sound is Middle-ground."

They both won.

The only time these bits of verse ever made any money.

Oh, yes, I forgot one. "A horse that's tops is my friend Swap."

But there were a lot of lean years in between.

Anyway, if it isn't Finnegan, I'm not going to win again.

SOME PEOPLE say I have a one-track mind. That's a base canard. It's really two.

On one, the horses run and on the other, trains.

But they have one thing in common. The same guy who names Pullman cars must name the horses.

THIS IS THE time of year when billboard operators are busy changing the signs of resort hotels.

Down at the beaches, they are taking off the part that says "Winter Rates" and out here on the desert, they will soon be adding "Summer Rates."

That is, they will, if they are on their toes.

Up on Highway 99 one of our local hotels has a big sign.

Last summer they slapped on a big addendum "Summer Rates."

Somebody forgot and it stayed there almost until the middle of January.

THE PRESENCE in town this week of Stanley Mosk reminds me that I still see a billboard down in Orange County which importunes all who pass by to elect Mosk as attorney general.

And it was only a few days ago that the big billboard on Highway 99 urging everyone to elect Pat Brown, governor, came down.

That election was last November.

THIS STORY is true but it doesn't sound like it.

In Orange County a motorist was arrested on suspicion of drunk driving.

He gave his name as Harold L. Bozo.

His companion was one Patrick Fizzwater.

The UPI dispatch which detailed the incident, added that Fizzwater was not charged.

IF WE CAN'T have a painted crosswalk across Andreas Road on the east side of the Drive, why not at least one painted line, back of the pedestrian zone?

With a sign on the paving "Stoop Here."

Then you would not have to practically crawl over bumpers of cars waiting squarely in the middle of the walk.

Some place I read this: "The biggest problem facing most wives is the one sitting across the breakfast table each morning."

"I'd marry her tonight if I could."

EARL WILSON:

Born (Almost) Yesterday

HOLLYWOOD — Joi Lansing, a beautiful blonde Mormon who often dates Frank Sinatra, was very sorry the day we met that she wasn't carrying a bathing suit with her.

"I practically always carry one," apologized Joi, who's a steady on Bob Cummings' NBC TV show and also was in "Hole in the Head," the movie Sinatra shot in Miami. "Somebody's always asking to take my picture in a bathing suit and I like to be ready."

Joi therefore tossed her legs about and worried about her shampooed hair that wasn't dry yet—and said, "It might be a good year for me."

"Frank called me a while back," Joi related, "and asked me to come to his home and see 'Hole in the Head' — but I was working with Clark."

Clark Gable, of course, in a picture "But Not For Me."

And Orson Welles is in her corner too. "He starred me in a picture," Joi bubbled. There were thousands of girls waiting for the audition and I intended to walk right out. When he saw me, he said, 'Where have you been?' I said, 'What?' He said, 'Tell all the other girls to go.'"

Thus she wound up in a TV pilot he hopes to sell.

Being one of the shapeliest, prettiest Hollywood gals, Joi seemed to be a natural for the Sinatra Fan Club, and she says concerning that, "Frank and I are very close friends and I intend to keep it that way."

When they were shooting in Miami, Joi told me, "One day I saw Frank with a script, cutting jumps out. I said, 'What are you doing?'"

"He said, 'I'm cutting things out. I want to go home.' He got a whim," explained Joi.

Joi is a sexpot — of the school that includes Marlene Dietrich, Jayne Mansfield, Anita Ekberg, Barbara Nichols, and Joan Bradshaw.

THERE ARE no Indians around St. Joseph these days. Nor did I hear a prairie wolf howl. (There was a little howling from the next cottage in my motor court where somebody was having a party.)

St. Joseph was the starting point for the Oregon Trail. In the spring of 1850, thousands of wagons were lined up here, waiting for the grass to grow enough on the plains. The Missouri farmers were engaged in a great share-the-wealth project.

"THERE WAS no fun wading through the black mud and driving an ox team," he wrote.

"But for the love of money and women who care for mud? Men will go through thick and thin, risk their lives and fortunes and go thousands of miles away from home to get either; and some of them obtain neither and should be pitied, for there is plenty of both and enough for all, if properly distributed."

"ONE DAY we were passing a swampy place near a farmhouse and could see several old hogs eating the young grass that grew in small bunches in the shallow water.

"One of them would fall over, give a little squeal, get up and go for the grass, then fall over again and squeal as before."

"ON CLOSE examination, we discovered that when it was biting and pulling at the grass and the grass broke off too suddenly, the old hog lost its balance and would fall flat on its side."

"Well, it was the thinnest hog I ever saw. It did not have the gold fever, either, but would squeal for corn and had to 'root hog or die,' as there was a 'corner on corn.'"

THE MISSOURI hogs all looked fat these days and presumably are getting enough corn.

However, the price of gasoline rose 3 cents. And the gas station man said he would have to charge me an extra dollar if I wanted the little Singer Gazelle washed.

"Even if it is smaller than an American car," he said. "That Illinois mud won't wash off. I'll have to scrape it off."

ABBY MANN, who wrote that magnificent Nuremberg Trunk show for Playhouse 90, had to turn over half of his salary to Telford Taylor — because Taylor, chief prosecutor of the trials, had turned over his files to Mann. That show moved so fast, incidentally, that director George LeRoy had to order his electricians and other crewmen dressed in the same military uniforms and judicial robes worn by the members of the cast in the courtroom scenes.

The technicians had to work so fast they couldn't get out of the way before the next scene—change, hence they were picked up by the cameras. But the audience never knew it because of their costumes. Pretty sneaky, that Hill.

MANN'S NEXT show will be about Clarence Darrow — here's that Man again, after "Inherit the Wind" and "Compulsion." It looks like Darrow's year. Mann's new play, for the Theatre Guild, is titled "He Who Stands Alone." It's about a Chicago jury-bribing case in which the blustering barrister became embroiled.

Ann Sheridan and Scott McKay, her leading man in her new Little America series, are Very Warm for May.

Paul Henreid's Humph: "Okay, so 'The House on the Haunted Hill' is a great movie — but I STILL say it's a lousy real estate buy!"

THE MORMONS don't bar girls from being sexpots. "I don't smoke or drink or swear—well, once in a while," she said, deciding to have a cup of coffee. "I think we Mormons are allergic to alcohol."

"For example, I tried to smoke for a cigaret commercial. When they said, 'Would you inhale?' I said, 'Please, God,' but they said I couldn't do it, so they said, 'We'll fake it.'"

"They cut just before we got to the inhale part."

Starting five years ago with the very first Bob Cummings show—the original pilot, even—Joi's performed regularly in a bathing suit as one of his photographic models. Bob's even roped her into his Vitamin Club.

"I take a health drink—called Tiger's Milk that he got me drinking," Joi said.

"It's got everything in it—plus a raw egg yolk. When Bob comes to work he looks 19—he looks younger than I do."

"Does it help you?"

"I feel divine. I just had my tiger's milk!" She tossed her best bodice forward and her eyes shone.

Joi was married briefly to an actor named Lance Fuller and was just starting to wear bathing suits. Divorced now, she's free-lancing, as the bachelor girls in Hollywood call it.

"When were you born?" I asked her.

"April 6," she replied with what has become her standard answer. Joi has played a lot of light parts but would like to do something dramatic... a role in which she winds up getting killed in a western, for example.

"I could get shot in a bathing suit," she suggested.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Up in Arms

HOLLYWOOD — Hollywood's producers of shows-on-film are up in arms over the network censorship that lets the live shows get away with taboo topics banned from being immortalized on film. The film boys' spokesman is Hal Hudson, producer of Zane Grey Theatre and the Black Saddle series.

Have at 'em Hal: "Why should live shows get away with things that are strictly forbidden on our filmed shows? CBS-TV let Playhouse 90's 'Judgment at Nuremberg' show a hanging, complete with body-fall. On the previous week's 'Day Before Atlanta' a child was shot to death, not off-camera but in full view of those tuned in."

"LAST MONTH, this same Playhouse 90's 'In Lonely Expectations' had a 14-year-old girl pregnant, and out of wedlock at that! But the censors on the same network won't even allow our filmed series to show the rope being put around a man's neck before an off-camera hanging. They won't allow us to 'put a child in jeopardy,' let alone shoot the child, and as for having a pregnant child on one of the shows... well, we're dead before we start!"

"I feel that filmed TV shows should be given the same freedom as live shows if networks are sincere about what IS and IS NOT acceptable in the home!"

Spouted by the spouse of a TV producer: "Mean? That man of mine is so mean he was eating his heart out the other night and broke a tooth!"

NEW RECORD

Forelore, Art Abound in Alaskan Tomes

Alaska Sourdough Stories, compiled by George Kosmos, $1.50. Alaskan Poker Stories, compiled by Kenneth Gilbert, $1.75. Alaskan Ten Footed Bear and Other Legends, compiled by Ruth McCorkle, $2. Alaskan Igloo Tales, compiled by Edward L. Keithahn, $3. Ketchikan Alaskan Sketchings, by Andrew William Vachon, $2.25. Alaska Oddities, by Bob Wikstrom, $1. Published by Robert D. Seal Publications, Seattle.

There is bound to be a stampede not unlike the one that racked the Klondike for information concerning Alaska, the newly-acquired 49th state.

Some of that lore, some of that information is made available through a half-dozen publications now making their appearance on the Southland literary market. Although none of them could be said to fulfill the purpose of a history of Alaska, there is still a huge amount of information to be drawn from these works. Furthermore, most of it is "fun" reading.

IN "ALASKA" Sourdough Stories, author Kosmos — aided by some excellent illustration on the part of Eustace Ziegler — sets forth some of the twice-told and even thrice-told tales about such things as Kodiak bears, sourdoughs, pirates and the like, in a highly readable style.

Even more fun is "Alaskan Poker Stories" in which author Gilbert and illustrator Ziegler join forces for a bookful of unusual (and sometimes weird) tales of the poker-playing antics on the Alaskan frontier. "Poker-Wise Salmon" and "The Church of Cards" are a pair of the more enchanting stories but the entire anthology is a thoroughly interesting array of recollections.

TWO OF THE six books—Ruth McCorkle's "Alaskan Ten Footed Bear and Other Legends" and Edward L. Keithahn's "Alaskan Igloo Tales"—deal specifically with the Eskimo and Alaskan Indian and are illustrated by native artists, the former by Wilbur Waluk, the latter by George Aden Ahgupuk.

Both of these books are simply retellings of the tales that the Eskimos and Indians have handed down to white immigrants in the sprawling territory. But both have retained virtually all of that initial charm, that basic naivete that marks the true folklore of a simple people from the sophisticated (or pseudo-sophisticated) attitudes of complicated and self-complicated cultures.

The stories in these two works are simply, easily stated and would make superb choices in the field of children's gifts. Because of the profuseness of illustration, "Alaskan Igloo Tales" would appear to be the better choice. Both are, however, well-illustrated and well-printed.

FIFTH OF THE six new works is the effort of a Jesuit priest, the Rev. Father Andrew William Vachon, S.J. Titled "Ketchikan Alaskan Sketchings," the book carries the priest's own impressions of both the beauty and the seaminess of the frontier town. Some of the artlessness of Father Vachon is captured in such dialogue as:

"This isn't a Chamber of Commerce publication so we'll pass over the fact that millions of pounds of salmon, halibut, pulp and board feet of lumber is shipped to the remaining four-fifths of the United States every year or that there are so many boats here that they look like thousands of 'skeeters' on a pond." There are other traces of that feeling throughout the book—which is a fairly healthy-sized package — and that the sketches by the priest seem to indicate a rapport with his environment if not with his medium.

THE LAST of the six books to be released here by the publisher is a sort of believe-it-or-not type of thing titled "Alaska Oddities." Former card player Robert Wikstrom puts together a great wealth of information, corrections of mistakes, impressions and sheer fun with a not unpleasant art style in this effort. Samples:

"Alaska is twice as good as it is bad! Reason: There are two paradises in Alaska but only one Purgatory."

"Due to the deplorable habit of a tame moose getting drunk and creating a disturbance, all Fairbanks, Alaska, by city ordinance."

"Wyatt Earp, the famous marshal who cleaned up Dodge City and Tombstone, was a far deal-er in the 'second class' saloon at Nome, Alaska, in 1899."

It's a fascinating work, this collection of oddities, which means that it fits nicely into the set. They're all fascinating, all laden with lore and information.

WASHINGTON — House GOP leader Charles Halleck, warning against passage of a labor-backed bill for boosting pension and unemployment benefits to the nation's railroad workers:

"The railroads are in trouble. We must stop, look and listen before we go too far."

HAZARD, Ky. — Coal operator Jack Blair, announcing he has sold his holdings and is moving out of Letcher County, Ky., because of shootings in the area:

"I have been shot at, my equipment has been shot at, my trucks have bullet holes in them, my wife has been threatened, and I can't take any more."

PARIS — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, after leaving the French Foreign Ministry following the first meeting of the Big Four Western foreign ministers:

"We reached an agreement not to say anything."

WOOD — Ex-gambler Mickey Cohen, helping stripper Candy Barr, who is free on appeal on a Texas narcotics conviction:

"I'd marry her tonight if I could."

Some place I read this: "The biggest problem facing most wives is the one sitting across the breakfast table each morning."

Improvement Group to Hold Election Tonight

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Officers for the 1959-60 year will be elected when the Desert Hot Springs Improvement Association holds its annual election meeting at 7:20 p.m., Saturday, in the association's hall.

A slate of officers—Les Morgan, president; George Gross, vice president; Mrs. Eleanor Hunter, secretary; and Iita Campbell, treasurer—has been nominated by the association's nominating committee also advocated election of E. W. Richards, Sadie Dehner and Laura Murphy to the group's board of directors.

The election will follow the organization's regular monthly potluck dinner which begins at 6:30 p.m.

The hall is located at 8th and Cactus in Desert Hot Springs.

Luau Plans to Be Made by DHS Women's Club

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Plans for the May 17 luau scheduled by the Desert Hot Springs Women's Club will be discussed in two meetings of the organization set for Thursday.

An executive board meeting of the group will discuss the project at 10:30 a.m., that date, in the home of Myrna Newman. At 1:30 p.m., same day, the business meeting of the organization will broach the subject when they convene at the home of Mrs. P. J. Fobert, at 10-797 West Drive in Cholla Gardens.

Also featured at the business meeting will be a book review delivered by Mrs. Lola Hemmingsway on Emily Kimbrough's "Forty Phas and Fancy Free."

Tickets for the May 17 luau are being sold now for $3 each.

Critics Skunked

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — A recent issue of the "Ohio PENITENTIARY News," publication of the inmates at the state prison here, carried this counsel:

"If criticism had any real power, the skunk would be extinct by now."

THOUSAND PALMS

By IZETTA HUNT

The Associated Chambers of Commerce of Riverside County met in the Desert Hot Springs Tuesday for a business luncheon. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Welcome, Mrs. Vernad Orwig, and Henry Lennie, of Thousand Palms, attended the meeting. After luncheon, they were invited to tour Cabot Yerza's Old Indian Pueblo and then went on a tour through the new Angel View Crippled Children's Clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lennie were weekenders at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don MacPherson, in Palmdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCarby, of Inglewood, returned to their home Saturday after a tour through several states. They plan on week-ending at their home on Arbo Real now.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lentz are back home on Sierra Del Sol after a visit in Salt Lake City, Utah, at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lentz.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Alexander, of Belvedere, spent a week at their home in Shangri La Palms.

Mr. and Mrs. Ches Fountain (our Sunday School missionary) and their two children were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace Sunday.

Matthew Geckle, of Los Angeles, spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Mary Geckle, at her home on Los Flores.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Wallace were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Orin Wallace in La Jolla.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Kranz, from Pasadena, were visitors about town.

Mrs. Margaret Jones, of Fontana, spent Tuesday with a longtime friend, Mrs. I. H. Sloper. It was 35 years since they had met.

Kiwanis to Hear Mayor Laurie At May 5 Meet

Major Stuart Laurie, acting commander of the 308th Tactical Fighter Squadron at George Air Force Base, will be the feature speaker at the Kiwanis Club luncheon May 5 at the Chi Chi.

Major Laurie, a native of Decatur, Ill., is scheduled to speak on the mission of the 308th, the squadron which will be "adopted" by Palm Springs on Armed Forces Day, May 16. He will tell of the organization's world-wide mission as part of Tactical Air Command's Composite Air Strike Force. CASF's were recently deployed to the Middle East and Formosa to help put out our "brush fire wars" there.

The 35-year-old airman completed flying training in 1944 and subsequently served at overseas bases in Hawaii and England. He is a qualified pilot in a wide variety of aircraft including F-84, F-86, and F-100 jet fighters.

His normal duty is that of Operations Officer for the squadron.

Major Laurie is married to the former Pearl Downing of Honolulu and resides in the government housing area at George AFB. They have four children.

Installation of Pastor

'Service of Recognition' Held at North Palm Springs

NORTH PALM SPRINGS—A "service of recognition" was conducted at the Community Chapel here this week, marking the installation of Rev. Dwight Ball as church pastor.

Also installed were church board officers, who are Harold Owens, Mrs. J. Dever, Mrs. Elton Holmes, Mrs. J. L. Meek, Mrs. Stanley Morgan and A. L. Eaton.

NEW BOARD members were addressed by Dr. George Haskell, of the First Congregational Church of San Bernardino. Services were conducted by Rev. Gerald Churchill, of Redlands.

Rev. Ball, church leader here since last fall, is a graduate of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary in San Anselmo. He has held pastorates at El Centro, Pacific Beach, Sunnyside and Calimesa.

THE SERMON at the installation services was delivered by Rev.

George Jenkins, minister of religious education for the Congregational Conference of Southern California, and Rev. Byron Light, of Riverside, offered the scriptures and prayer.

Also participating were Stanley Graff, assistant pastor of the First Congregational Church Extension Society; Rev. Byron Haines, minister of the First Methodist Church of Desert Hot Springs; and Rev. Charles Harwood, minister of the Desert Hot Springs Baptist Church.

MRS. F. E. BOWRON, Mezzo soprano, sang the solo, accompanied by Mrs. Alys Schwendman.

Services were followed by a tour of Angel View Crippled Children's Clinic and a dinner at the chapel served by church women directed by Mrs. Elton Holmes, dinner chairman.

The Indians outlasted the Arabs yesterday at the Polo Grounds and Palm Springs High today was still at the head of the Riverside County League baseball race all alone.

They now have a two-game lead over the Coachella High with San Jacinto remaining the only threat to their hopes for an RCL baseball title. San Jacinto won yesterday, too, to stay with this one game of the Tribe.

N. RUIZ BROKE IT up yesterday in the bottom of the 10th. He hit a timely single which scored brother Lenny Ruiz from third.

Deadlocked at 4-4, Lenny drew a walk to start it. Leroy Segundo made it on a error, Ruiz moving to third.

Then N. Ruiz caught one and that was the game.

LEREY SEGUNDO got the credit for the win, his fifth in six starts. He scattered nine hits, walked two and struck out eight.

The Arabs got away to a 2-0 lead in the first two rounds but the Indians came back with a three-run burst in the bottom of the second. Coachella made it 4-3 in the fifth but the Tribe again countered in the bottom of the inning to tie it at 4-4.

SEGUNDO and Jimmy Montoya of Coachella then bore down and retired their opponents for four rounds scoreless.

In the bottom of the tenth, the Ruiz brothers and Segundo did their bit to win the game.

Next Tuesday, Palm Springs hosts Banning High at the Polo Grounds. Banning is 0-10 in the race to date.

Game time is 4:30 p.m.

Yesterday's line score:
Coachella.....110 000 000 4-4 9 1
Palm Springs.....000 010 000 1-5 9 2

Del Ennis Joins White Sox Today

CHICAGO, (UP) — The Chicago White Sox awaited the arrival today of outfielder Del Ennis from Cincinnati as at least a temporary answer to their search for a long ball hitter.

The 33-year-old veteran of 13 major league seasons became White Sox property Friday. In exchange the American League contenders sent left-handed pitcher Don Rudolph and Lou Skivas to the Reds.

Free Golf Class To Come to End Saturday, May 16

Two more lessons are on the program for young golfers of the Palm Springs area who have been meeting with Dale Anderson, well known golf teacher, at the Palm Springs Golf Club course on Highway 111 for the past few weeks.

Today Anderson continued his instructions on putting and chipping and on short shots.

Next Saturday he will be in Santa Maria for the State Open and the final lesson of the year is scheduled for May 16.

Trophies will be awarded at this meeting. Four will go to the boys and four to the girls who have developed the best swings, two for the boys and two for the girls.

With only one trophy to a golf clinic student, this means that twelve boys and girls will win prizes.

Anderson is pleased with the success of the first annual golf clinic here and the results will be apparent on the tournament fields later, he believes.

Roberts Would Have 2 All Star Games Per Year

NEW YORK, (UP) — Robin Roberts, the National League player representative, has proposed two all-star games be played each year and that proceeds from the additional game be used for promotion of amateur baseball, the Old-Timers Association and the pension fund.

The veteran pitcher of the Philadelphia Phillies made the suggestion here Friday to the major league Executive Council, which agreed unanimously to recommend its adoption by the major league clubs.

Long Beach and CVSL Nine Meet Here Tomorrow

Palm Springs baseball team, sponsored by the Coachella Valley and Loan Association, will meet the Long Beach All Stars tomorrow afternoon at the Polo Grounds.

The Beach team is a member of the Los Angeles Winter Ball association.

Game time is 1:30 and admission is free.

BOWLING

WOMEN'S LEAGUE

Ramon Drug bowlers rolled the high team series in the Women's League this week with a mark of 2323 and also rolled the high team game, 375.

Lee Bowen scored a 482 series for high individual honors and Beverly Midstocke had a high game of 185.

Standing at the end of the week: Wheelettes, 60-27; Hoams Pools, 51-36; P. S. Transfer and Storage, 47 1/2-39 1/2; Janis Enterprises, 40-47; Ramon Drug, 33-54; Minna's Fashions, 29 1/2-57 1/2.

QUEEN AND DUKE HEAD 100,000 AT SOCCER TITLE GAME

WEMBLY, Eng. (UP) — Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh will head a capacity crowd of 100,000 at the Empire Stadium today for the showpiece of English soccer, the final of the Football Association Challenge Cup.

Two first division clubs, Nottingham Forest and Luton Town, will contest the right to hold the coveted silver trophy for 12 months. For the first time since the inauguration of the cup competition 88 years ago, thousands of European soccer fans will be able to join 3,000,000 home fans in watching the match on their television screens.

Patterson Says He'll be at Peak in Ingemar Fight

NEW YORK, (UP) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, fresh from his 11th-round knockout over England's Brian London, sounded the warning today, "I'll be 100 per cent sharp for the big fight in June."

The 24-year-old champion from Rockville Center, N. Y., said "I was only 55 per cent of myself against London last night and 25 per cent of myself last August against Roy Harris—but I'll be 100 per cent against Ingemar Johansson in June."

FLOYD APPEARED ring-rusty Friday night at the Fair Grounds Coliseum although he gave the former British Empire champion such a lopsided beating that only one ring official gave Brian a round.

London, bleeding from his right cheek and the mouth, was counted out by referee Frank Sikora at 51 seconds of the 11th round, when the game Englishman was on the floor for the second time. I the 10th round a right to the chin had driven him to one knee, but the bell ending the round rang at the count of five.

London will receive $60,000, plus trans-Atlantic expenses for his leaving London's guarantee comes out of Patterson's total purse.

PROMOTER AL FARB announced a paid attendance of 10,038 and a gross gate of $122,885. The net gate was $103,111. Patterson's 60 per cent of the net gate was $61,866. He also receives the total TV-radio fee of $173,000, giving him a total purse of $236,966. After paying London's $60,000 and expenses, he should wind up with approximately $170,000.

Floyd's fight with European champion Johansson at New York's Yankee Stadium, June 25, is expected to draw a million-dollar gate.

Although Floyd was far from sensational Friday night as he registered his 22nd straight victory and his fourth defense of the crown, he had the distinction of being the first man to knock rugged London off his feet.

The challenger weighed 206 pounds to the champion's 182 1/2.

Indian Netters at Santa Ana Today In CIF Tourney

Coach Seamus Nunan of the Riverside County League Boys Tennis champions — Palm Springs High — took several of his boys to Santa Ana today for play in individual matches under auspices of the California Interscholastic Federation.

In the meantime, he was awaiting word from the CIF on team play-offs which are expected to start soon.

GOING TO Santa Ana today were Frank Ripley, completely recovered from a knee injury which kept him out of all but two RCL matches, Gary Grossman, Roger Burten, Mike Hart, Steven Rosen and Eugene Neischuler.

Tribe netters closed their RCL season this week with their seventh straight team win. They were not scored upon in six of the tournaments, winning 31 to 0 in each and won the seventh 21 to 10. Hemet High, second in the league, won one singles match and one doubles match in that one.

COACH NUNAN's boys won 34 out of 35 singles matches and 13 out of 14 doubles.

Eric Williams didn't miss a tourney, playing in seven without the loss of a set. David Teitelbaum and Gary Grossman played in six, winning all, neither losing a set.

Dick McFarland and Steve Rosen played in all tournaments in the doubles, McFarland without loss of a set.

THE "BOX SCORE" for the local boys, matches played, won, lost and sets won and lost, follows:

Dodgers Lose to Cincinnati, 3 to 5

CINCINNATI, (UP) — Southpaw Gene Snyder makes his major league debut today when the Los Angeles Dodgers attempt to even the score with Cincinnati.

A crew-cut, roundhouse curve artist, Snyder will oppose former Dodger Don Newcombe or fellow yearling Jim O'Toole for the Reds.

Los Angeles failed to take up any slack Friday on league-leading Milwaukee—which lost to San Francisco — when the Dodgers dropped a 5-3 decision to the Reds.

Beckman, Magner In Lead

INDIAN WELLS—A total of 196 golfers teed off this morning in the last lap of the 54-hole Indian Wells Pow Wow Tournament with the field knotted closely for top honors.

Al Beckman and C. Magner teed off this morning with a best 36-hole team score of 123, followed closely by Jim Harstad and Willard Parker, 126; B. Sutton, Dennis O'Keefe, H. Johnson, and Maynard Laswell, 127; and Ted Morgan, J. Berkeley, Frank Chilson, D. Slayton, E. Murphy, D. Stacker, George Beebe, Jr., and Russell Wade, 129.

ALL PRIZES ARE for team play, with awards going to winners of each day of play as well as the best twosome and foursome for the tournament.

Awards will be presented tonight in the 2nd Annual Pow Wow Dinner-Dance held at the new clubhouse in Indian Wells. As part of the night's activities, the club has brought Arizona Indian dancers to the club to perform for the people. Although the traditional "full moon" is not shining tonight, Eddie Cusilla, pro-manager of the club, said that Indian Wells will supply one.

Winning teams for the first two days of the tournament have been listed as follows:

All Star Golf Opens At Eldorado Tuesday

Eldorado Country Club will be the scene Tuesday of the start of the 1959 shooting of All Star Golf, with Sam Snead and Gary Player of South Africa in the opening event.

The series will be filmed and presented by ABC-TV during the year.

Play starts at 9 a.m. Tuesday at Eldorado and the public is invited to attend.

WEDNESDAY play shifts to Bermuda Dunes Country Club with Billy Casper meeting the winner of Tuesday's match.

On Thursday, they will be back at Eldorado with Ed (Porky) Oliver meeting the winner of the Bermuda Dunes play.

Final of the four-day play here will be on Friday at Bermuda Dunes with Al Balding playing the winner of Thursday's 18.

THIS IS the second year of the All Star Golf series. It was started in the Palm Springs area last year.

From Palm Springs, the pros go to Las Vegas the week after for another series and then to Apple Valley the following week.

Jimmy Demaret, leading pro for more than 20 years, will be the commentator on the series.

They will be on ABC television network later in the year.

Hebert Hangs on To Colonial Lead

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UP) — Chunky Lionel Hebert, who says "every shot you hit here is a strain," was holding up well enough under the pressure to pack a two-stroke lead into the third round of the Colonial National Invitation golf tournament with his six-under-par 134.

The Lafayette, La., pro, who hasn't been too frequent a visitor to the payoff window since capturing the 1957 PGA crown, fired his second straight 67 Friday.

Hometown Ben Hogan was in second place at 136, thanks to a 67 of his own, but he had 15 pars and birdie putts of 15, 26 and 30 feet in contrast to Hebert's scrambling round of six birdies and three bogeys.

SHOVEL-WIELDER George Ripley figures it's better late than never, and went right ahead with groundbreaking ceremonies for the new Desert Hand Laundry addition, although Ripley's partner, James Hardin, points out that work has already started on the building. Ripley and Hardin are co-owners, with Arthur E. Bailey, of the laundry, which is building a new addition designed to furnish 24-hour service at the East Ramon Road laundry site. Thirty automatic coin machines and dryers will be available at all times including Sundays, for half-hour laundry service. The new addition will be completed in 30 days and will be ready for service before June 15. Ripley said the new service "rounds out" a laundry operation started here more than 30 years ago.

Indians, Animals West Featured in Buff Books

By GERRY VANEK
Indians, animals, and the West have always held a strong attraction for Conrad and Mary Buff, and their enthusiasm for these subjects is infectious.

In celebrating our acquisition of Mr. Buff's original drawing and colorful print, we'd like to emphasize the fact that the ten books we have by the Buffs cover a span of fifty centuries, many lands and many peoples and Mother Nature in her gentlest—and her fiercest—moods.

ONE MIGHT ALMOST say they constitute a capsule history of the world as seen through the eyes of two artists: Conrad who works with his brush and palette—and Mary, who paints her pictures with words.

DANCING CLOUD was a Navajo boy who lived in a hogan at the foot of the high, red cliffs of Pottery Butte in Arizona. The Navajo Indians, who used to be warlike, were now peaceful planters of corn, and herders of their great sheep and goat flocks. Yet, like any boy his age, Dancing Cloud had his share of thrilling adventures.

DID YOU KNOW that many pages of a book are printed together on one large sheet of paper? The publishing house of Viking sent us such a sheet of DANCING CLOUD as it appears before being folded and cut to book-size. Be sure to see this interesting step in "the birth of a book" when you're in the children's room.

In MAGIC MAIZE we go south of the border to Guatemala—to the site of the ancient land of the Mayas. The lush, tropical atmosphere, and the story of Fabian and his family, make pulses race in exciting sequences about the mysterious jade earplug... the midnight planting of the magic maize... and the native reactions to the eclipse of the moon.

HAH-NEE OF THE CLIFF DWELLERS takes us back 600 years to that curious corner of our country where Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, and Utah meet—where the Stone Age people carved their homes into the sides of the cliffs. Once you read of Hah-Nee's desperate plight—and eventual flight—you'll know why the cliff dwellings stand lonely and deserted now.

Next week's story on the Buffs will conclude this series of three articles about the artist and his wife. When you come in to see their pictures and books, be sure to peep into our glass display case.

Industry Earnings Dip

NEW YORK (UPI)—American industry in 1958 earned 12 per cent less than in 1957, according to the First National City Bank of New York. A tabulation of earnings reports issued by 2,219 companies showed they had aggregate net income of $13,928,600,000, against $15,776,219,000 in 1957.

The total population of the Los Angeles area went up by 46 per cent between 1950 and 1958, when it reached an estimated 6,388,700.

Marine Corps Chaplain Is Speaker Today

Marine Corps Chaplain Hal Eaton of the Twentynine Palms Marine Base was guest speaker at the second annual Father-Son Breakfast of the Desert Area Christian Businessmen's Committee today in the Huddle Springs Restaurant.

Another Marine — Corp. Tom Ragland — will provide special music for the event, according to W. I. Greer, chairman of the event. The public is invited to attend.

Finchy P-T-A Installs Officers

Mrs. Cy Ostad was installed as president of Katherine Finchy Parent-Teacher Association at Tuesday night's meeting which also featured an open house at the school.

Installing officer Mrs. Ruby Alken, president of Caballero P-T-A, also installed Mrs. Gerald Fostved, Mrs. Edward Strickland and Mrs. John McMichael as vice presidents; Mrs. John Spangur as recording secretary; Mrs. J. R. Wahlberg, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Donald Goudry, treasurer; Mrs. A. H. Thatcher, historian and publicity; Paul Needleman, auditor.

In observance of Public Schools Week, open house was held and parents visited the rooms of their children under the guidance of individual teachers to observe procedures and the work being done by the students.

Also a highlight of the evening was the annual Bake Sale which was enthusiastically participated in.

Parents are reminded that visiting the school is not limited to Public Schools Week. They are welcome at all times and encouraged to view their children during regular sessions at the school.

Leaving Soon

FOR YOU FROM PALM SPRINGS... is the catch-the-eye title of the album The Bonaires are bringing out next weekend... coincidental with their opening for a week's engagement in Irwin Schuman's Starlite Room... It's another Palm Springs fantasy... for the story behind these boys, this album and these dates... is as closely overlapping Palm Springs as the afternoon shadows of San Jacinto... And when the album with its cover of Village scenes hits the record stands all over the nation... it will spread the legend of fun in the sun... and make the Bonaires our singing ambassadors...

It started last fall... when I was between the typewriter... and committee meetings for the Hat Parade Luncheon... rounding up talent and judges... The Bonaires were just back from a national promotion tour following their successful engagement at famed Ciro's on the Strip... George Shaw was just back from Europe with a new client Renato Signorini... and volunteered the services of both the quartet and Signorini... tossing his own and Joan Winchell's into the bargain...

The Bonaires were an instant hit at the Hat Parade Luncheon... and a social success at the open-house season party at the Costello's that night...

Everybody got sand in their shoes... but Signorini had to dash off to Monaco to do a solid gold statue of Princess Grace... returning later for his fabulous show of his golden statues at the Tennis Club...

The Bonaires came back down to sing at Thunderbird's New Years Eve party... and became consistent commuters after that... spending all their available time here... Tom Powers actually got in a month at the Desert Inn following the completion of the album...

With the album ready for release... what more fitting time could be found than the weekend of the Costello's closing party... for the boys to open at Chi Chi and release their record from Palm Springs?

Of course... the Bonaires, accompanied by Tom's mother Mrs. George Powers of Garden City, Long Island, who is flying out for the opening... will be at the party on Saturday night... before their opening on Sunday night...

The title comes from the lead tune "For You"... and the album features nine standards... such as "Night and Day," "All Ways," "Little Girl Blue," "In the Still of the Night," "Temptation"... plus a great new tune by Tom (he writes music and lyrics too) called "Talking to The Lord"... and his set of lyrics to the old Glowworm done as a cha-cha... Also a haunting tune called "Skyline of Old Manhattan"... based on the background music of Lana Turner's new film "Imitation of Life"...

It's for YOU... from Palm Springs...

The Bonaires will follow Ginny Simms... who opens at Chi Chi on May 8... Ginny's appearance at Chi Chi is becoming an annual event looked forward to by Villagers... and many opening night parties are being planned...

Helen Ryan returned to Evansville this week... but will be back here in June... to check on progress of their Bermuda Dunes house... before she and Ray take off for Europe...

Ray is off on the Rancho ride... but expects to spend the rest of May right here in Palm Springs...

Eddie Susalla and I did a fine job of misunderstanding each other over the telephone... and I showed up in practically the only squaw dress at the smart cocktail party that marked the opening of that exciting new clubhouse at Indian Wells...

The Irving Snyders... who divide their year between their homes in Palm Springs and in Coronado... will be leaving soon to spend the summer months along the seacoast...

Jolie Gabor and two of her famous daughters Zsa Zsa and Eva will be going through Anatole Robbins' Golden Door... Jolie is entering today... and the girls join her there soon...

After returning to Palm Springs... Jolie and her husband Count Edmund de Szegethy leave for New York where they will be at the Plaza... until they sail for Europe on the Liberté on July 4... They plan to visit Paris, London and other spots... renewing old acquaintances...

Under the heading... It could only happen in Palm Springs... Down on San Jacinto Way there are some Easter lilies in bloom... They are not only belated... they are also completely unexpected... Potted Easter lilies that came as an Easter gift... died down... and the bulbs were casually stuck into the ground... Forgetting about them a bed of violets was planted later... and this spring the lily plants shot through the violets... and now they are blooming...

And then there is the fellow that's been trying to lower the thermometer reading for the Village... He's been driving around town in an open convertible... with the air conditioning turned on...

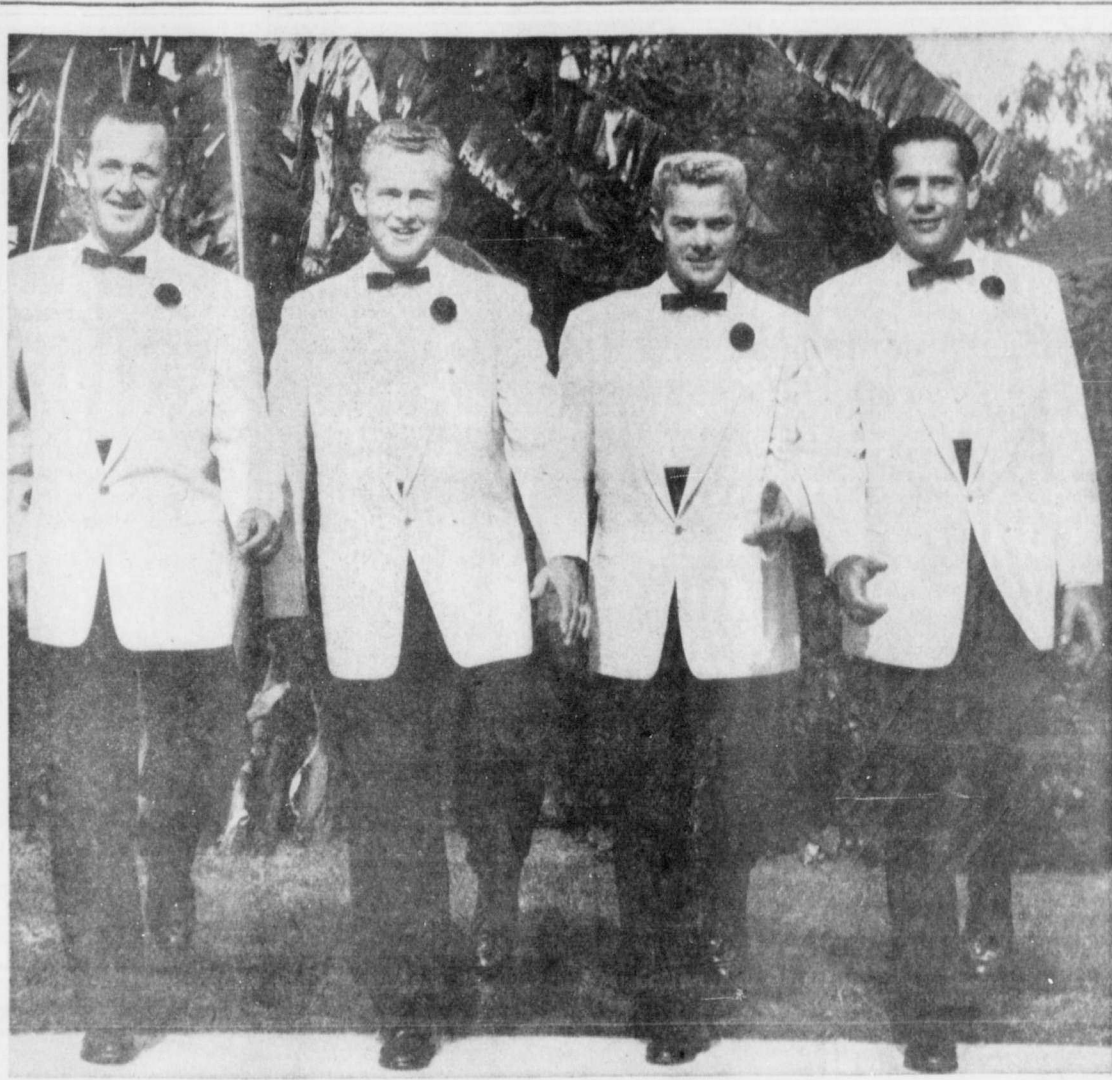

Society Resumes Rummage Sales

New items of clothing and household goods will be available at small cost when the Welfare and Friendly Aid Society resumes its Little House Rummage sale program Tuesday.

The sale is to be conducted in the Society's new quarters in back of the new Police Building in Civic Center on McCallum Way.

Household articles and clothing are still being sought for the weekly rummage sales, officials of the organization announced.

Committee members will arrange for pick-up of any donations. Numbers to call for pick-up service are FA 4-1020, FA 5-5445 or FA 5-5688.

HERE THEY COME... Just as they will be walking out of the cover from their new album "For You From Palm Springs" and as they will be walking onto the Chi Chi stage for one week starting Sunday, May 17—THE BONAIRES.

Japanese Party at Lone Palm

Japanese "geisha girls" cooked and served the Sukiyaki at each individual table at Lone Palm's authentic Japanese Party Saturday night. Traditional Japanese ceremonies, such as the precise tea rites, were also demonstrated by the girls, who are really exchange students from L.A.C.C.

Entertainment included instruction in the use of chopsticks, the origin of Sukiyaki, several popular dances and a segment of a traditional play.

The event took place in the main Lone Palm dining room. Under the direction of Kohji Taugami, the dining area was beautifully decorated with automatic Japanese items such as Japanese lanterns, screens and lovely flower arrangements.

There were several large parties in attendance. The Corwin Spencers and an all-Canadian group of 14 people were celebrating the 45th wedding anniversary of two of their members, the S. C. Forbes, of Montreal.

Another large table was reserved for Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stuart of El Paseo Market. They had 16 people who were "bon voyage-ing" four of their members who are to leave shortly for the Orient, Alice and Jimmy Yamato and Eddie and Jerry Pringle.

Another prominent Villager in attendance was Charlie Jones of Tamarisk, who is owner of Laurie's Steak House, and the beautiful new Waterfall Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Jones had just recently returned from a month-long trip to the Far East, and so felt quite at home at the party.

Small Potatoes

Try this waterless cooking method for small new potatoes. Wash and scrape 2 pounds potatoes. Heat 2 tablespoons salad oil in heavy skillet. Add potatoes, shake pan to coat all sides, cover and cook slowly 30 minutes or until tender. Shake pan occasionally to cook potatoes uniformly. Season to taste with salt, ground black pepper and fresh parsley or chives. Serves 6.

Phone FA 5-5005 for Classified Ads

Joe Francisco, from the Professional Pharmacy, was also there with a party of eight. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Krysan also had reservations.

It is planned to make the Japanese Party an annual event at the Lone Palm.

Smith College Club Luncheon

The annual Smith College Brunch will be held this year at the Los Angeles home of Mrs. Paul William Lawrence at 10467 Sunset Blvd. Mrs. Lawrence also has a Palm Springs house.

Mrs. Allen T. Murphy is president of the alumnae group staging the brunch, which will be held May 23 at 11 o'clock. The group holds only three meetings a year—autumn, winter and spring.

Each year, the Smith College Club of Los Angeles, selects an outstanding high school graduate for a scholarship, which is raised by private donation from the alumnae and not by benefits.

First Permanent?

Ancient Egyptian women found that if hair was wound on some sort of stick and heat was applied, a temporary wave could be obtained. Hair curled this way first was cut from the head, curled and then plastered on again.

Remove Spots the Easy Way

Here's how to remove spots and stains from fabric-covered furniture:

Grease: Spread a little chalk, Fuller's earth or corn meal on the spot, then dampen with a good cleaning fluid. Allow to dry and brush off.

Chewing gum and ice cream: Sponge the spot with carbon tetrachloride. For gum, use the back of a kitchen knife to scrape off the remaining substance. Also use a damp cloth on an ice cream stain.

Lipstick: Work a little vaseline or lard into the stain, then follow the directions for removing grease. If a trace of color remains, wipe with a solution of one part alcohol and two parts water.

Chocolate and creams: Sponge the spot with clean warm water and allow to dry. Scrape the spot with the back of a kitchen knife. If necessary, use a small amount of cleaning fluid.

Sugar candy: Sponge the spot with a cloth dampened in lukewarm water, stroking toward the center of the spot. If the stain remains when the material is dry, rub it with cleaning fluid.

Ink: Sponge with a 5 per cent vinegar solution or a 20 per cent oxalic acid solution.

Medicine: Dissolve with alcohol.

Coffee or fruit: Sponge with cold water or carbon tetrachloride.

Mildew: Rub vigorously with a cloth soaked in warm soap suds, then rinse by rubbing with a cloth wet in cold water.

Hold First Reunion in 20 Years

Members of the graduating class of '39 gathering at Palm Springs High School on May 8 will have lots to talk about, for it will be their first reunion in 20 years.

When Palm Springs High School opened on September 12, 1938, it was a great day for the students. For the first time they didn't have a 50-mile a day bus ride to Banning High School, an inconvenience which meant they left home at 7:30 a. m. and usually returned around 5.

School opened with an enrollment of 85, 20 of them seniors, but by the time May 25 rolled around they had picked up additional students and the first graduating class numbered 34. There were nine teachers on the faculty and Mr. Richardson was principal. Paul Summers is the only member of the original faculty still teaching in Palm Springs High School.

Members of the first graduating class were: Ted Reed, Robert Levi, Billy Bryant, Barbara Clatworthy, Bill Clark, John Crawford, Dixie Croft, Leon Crossley, Frank Dapron, Margaret Dunne, Jauinita Forrest, Donald Gray, Bessie Gee, Marjorie Gibbs, Jack Hardy, Charles Harrington, Hugh Hill, Marvel Lyman, Glen Mackeane, Iris Riley, Inez Morrison, Helen Moynihan, Willow Nord, Mary Lou Riordan, Elizabeth Shires, Berniece Strebe, Virginia Taylor, Robert Thompson, George Tomkins, John Tuchfarber, James Vanhooser, Ruth Woods, Myrtle Yarbrough, Vera Yarbrough.

An earnest effort is being made to locate all members of the class, and anyone who can help is asked to drop a line to The Desert Sun.

Berniece Strebe Lafrantz and Virginia Taylor Fox are in charge of arrangements for the Class of '39 dinner which will be held at Chi Chi the following night, May 9 and they report 14 of the class have been contacted so far.

Actually the open house which the '39ers will hold at the high school on May 8 is open to all high school alumni and it is hoped that a permanent Alumni Association may result.

A Woman's Critical Eye Finds Things Wearing Apparel Lacks

UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — Let fashion designers keep their heads in the clouds, for new creations come from dreaming. But please, dear garment manufacturers, haul yourselves down to earth and barken to the things which irk us females.

The other day I devoted a column to "Why Don't They?" concerning things about the house. The fashion people escaped; I ran out of room.

But there are plenty of "Why don't they?" which women write or call in.

I've been saving 'em up, so here goes and let us hope that everyone benefits—the manufacturers in more sales, the women in more for their money.

Why don't they?

—Find another way to make a neat fit without a zipper up the back of the dress. What woman hasn't had a back zipper stuck on the hottest day of the year? And closing some of those back zippers calls for the suppleness of an adagio dancer, the help of husband or a kindly elevator operator.

—Make all dress belts contoured. Many manufacturers even in the better-dress category still aren't contouring.

—Make the backing on all fabric belts of some material which will clean or wash, depending on the care the garment itself gets. —Make proportioned blouses as well as proportioned dresses, slips and hose for the short, medium or tall.

—Make longer shirt tails on blouses.

—Invent a surefire way to keep a blouse tucked in a skirt.

—Make those inner constructions for lining for sheath dresses, costumes and skirts of non-shrink material.

—Eliminate once and for all the skirt cut too narrow for easy walking. So what's wrong with a back or side pleat?

—Make buttonholes to fit buttons. Most holes become too large and don't hold after a garment has been through a couple of washings.

—Help us to keep those "white touches" white by attaching collars and cuffs with snaps instead of thread.

—Furnish matching hatpins for ALL hats, whether from hat bar or "name" designer.

—Include a couple of extra, matching buttons with any suit, coat, dress, negligee et cetera. The better manufacturers usually do this; all others should copy.

—Make earrings to "go with" all those new hues—blues, greens, and roses—in jewelry.

—Do a better job of attaching buttons, hooks and eyes and other fastenings. They have a nasty habit of coming off after one or two wearings.

—See that no garment leaves the factory without a decently even hemline.

Well, that is the list as of now. To anyone who wishes to add, or challenge, I'll listen.

An inexpensive, bookcase is made with boards and bricks. Paint or wax the boards and stack, separating them with the bricks.

Weekly Bridge Play Series at Tennis Club Concludes

Wednesday has been bridge luncheon day at the Tennis Club all season, and the highly successful weekly games which have been under the supervision of social director Joan McManus concluded this week. One of the largest luncheons given was hosted by Mrs. William Elsenman, as a finale to her card playing friends, who have met weekly around the bridge tables in the Club's Venetian Room.

Seated with the hostess at a beautifully appointed luncheon table in the Bougainvillea Room were: Mmes. Tom Holland, John Coleman, Eleanor Kane, and her sister, L. C. Pelott, of Scottsdale; Hortense Murray, Geri Fredrickson, Maggie Smith and Mabel Rogers. All were presented with white gardenia corsages.

Later the bridge-playing group assembled for their final game, and prizes were given. Those winning for the series were Hortense Murray, Prudence Coleman, Geri Fredrickson, Angus E. McMillan, L. C. Pelott and Hazel Gross.

Also lunching at the club on Wednesday, but not staying for bridge were Mrs. Roy Colegate and Mrs. Dorothy McNary. Another twosome in the corner were the Dick Edwardses (she looking very smart and cool in well tailored shorts and a matching blouse).

Mrs. Horace Heidt, who is here to nurse her son Jerry through the measles, was lunching with Mrs. Castle of San Francisco. The Heidt twins do not plan to return to Palm Springs to live next season, as they have hired someone to manage their property.

B&PW Club Installs at Chi Chi

Fifty-five members and guests of the Palm Springs Business and Professional Women's Club met Tuesday in the Chi Chi Blue Room for an impressive ceremony installing the following members as officers for the 1959-60 year: LaVaun Bell, president; Mary McGraw, 1st vice president; Dorothy Lynch, 2nd vice president; Jean Bourne, recording secretary; Robbie Kaptur, corresponding secretary; Helen Stary, treasurer.

Installing officer was E. Caroline Hawkins, president, Southern District, B. & P. W., of Oceanside. Marion Monette, past president of B. & P. W. Southern District, and now a member of the Cathedral City B. & P. W. Desert Club spoke on the "A B C's of B. & P. W." and guest speaker Leona Victoria Smith entertained with readings and impersonations.

Chairman of the installation banquet committee was Jeanne Blair, who was assisted by committee members Barbara Hostetter, Frances La Rue, Betty Luce, Annette Sorvantic, and Eudora Whisenand.

Retiring president June Travers was presented with an engraved silver dish by Charter President Fern Lorraine, who represented all the members of the Club in the presentation.

Easy Dessert For Emergency

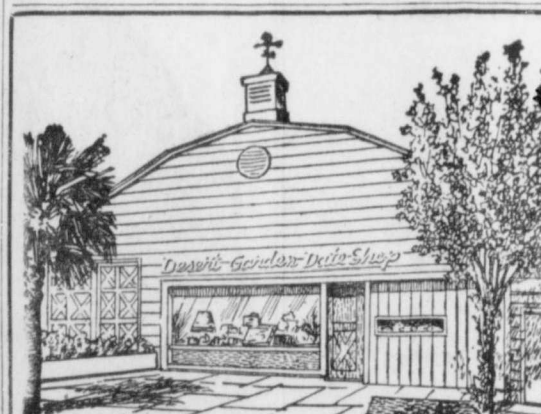

Keep coconut-vanilla ice box cookie dough on hand for an emergency dessert. Sift together 4 cups sifted all-purpose flour, 3 teaspoons double-acting baking powder and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Cream 1 cup butter or margarine with 1/2 cup brown sugar, then gradually blend in 2 cups white sugar. Beat in 2 eggs and 3 teaspoons vanilla. Stir in 1 cup shredded coconut and 3 tablespoons milk. Add flour mixture gradually. Place in covered bowl. Chill and bake as needed in 400-degree oven 10 minutes. Dough should be dropped from teaspoon onto ungreased cookie sheets. Makes 5 dozen.

Cornbread Squares

Corn bread squares with shrimp cheese topping make a filling mealless meal. Spread squares generously with chili sauce, sprinkle with grated cheese and top each with 2 cooked shrimp. Brush shrimp lightly with melted butter and place squares in broiler about 5 inches from heat source. Broil 2 to 3 minutes. Serve hot.

Fruit Bars

Fruit bars are easy to make with packaged date bar mix. Add 1/4 cup chopped, drained maraschino cherries and 1/2 cup cooked dried apricots to mix, and bake according to package directions.

Dessert That's Party-Pretty

Strawberry lime mousse is a party-pretty dessert. Soften 2 tablespoons unflavored gelatin in 1/2 cup lime juice. Heat another 1/2 cup lime juice to boiling point. Stir a little hot juice into gelatin mixture and then combine remainder, by pouring gelatin into rest of hot liquid. Stir until gelatin dissolves. Cool. Combine 3 cups heavy cream and 2 cups confectioners' sugar. Beat until stiff. Fold cream and 2 pints fresh strawberries, sliced, into gelatin, turn into 10-inch ring mold and freeze until firm. Unmold and serve 6 to 8 persons.

Two Couples Off to Orient

Two couples, the Ed Pringles and Alice and Jimmy Yamamoto leave Los Angeles tomorrow evening aboard Pan American for a month's tour of the Orient. On their way back they will stop over for a week in Honolulu, before returning to Palm Springs.

The foursome are long time Villagers and are associated with Stuart's El Paseo Market.

Rojo - Kuzma Vows Recited

A wedding trip to Ensenada, Mexico followed the April 11th wedding of Anna May Kuzma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Kuzma of Colton, and Leo Rojo Jr.

Vases of flowers on the altar and baskets of gladioli and stock decorated the church as the couple said their wedding vows in a double ring ceremony before Rev. Raymond Beaudry, pastor of Our Lady of Solitude Church. Larry Sitter was organist and Joe Wood sang "Ave Maria."

The bride wore a ballerina length gown with a scoop neckline, embroidered in the front and with rows of tulle ruffles in the back. Her veil was an elbow-length tulle with cap of nylon horsehair, designed like three flowers. She wore pearls and carried pink roses surrounded by white carnations. Bridesmaids, the bride's sister Lou Kuzma, and the groom's sister Cynthia and Cecelia, wore light blue, green and pink lace over taffeta gowns, and carried matching daisies.

Best man was Charles D. Potts, and ushers were James K. Otto of Cathedral City, and the bride's brother John A. Kuzma of Colton. The 35 wedding guests were entertained at a reception at the groom's home at 3333 San Antonio. A large tiered wedding cake was cut and served with champagne punch, and a buffet offered chicken salad and demi-sandwiches.

The bride graduated from Colton High School in 1956 and is a switchboard operator at Biltmore Hotel. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rojo Sr., a graduate of Palm Springs High School, is Engineer for the City of Palm Springs, a member of the Palm Springs Light Opera Company, and a Lieutenant in the United States Army Reserves National Guard.

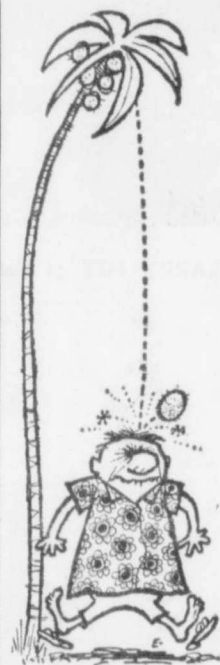

The couple will reside at 4370 Calle Ricardo, Palm Springs.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

LAUNCHING A HIGHWAY beautification campaign for La Quinta this week are Mark Smith, manager of the La Quinta Club; Lily Heffernan, chairman of the project, and Mrs. Kate Nelson.

The program includes the planting of palms at the Highway 111 entrance to La Quinta and a monthly clean-up campaign of the area. (Desert Sun Photo)

DEAR ABBY: Mother's Day is coming again and I get tired just thinking about it. Last year my 7 children (all married) came for supper. They brought their families and we number 38 and ate in 3 shifts. I got up at five-thirty in the morning to start the supper. Nobody helped me peel a potato and they all started coming in at five o'clock with their kids. I wiped noses, heated bottles, changed diapers, answered questions and waited on everybody trying to make them feel comfortable and welcome. They left my house upside down and it took me a week to clean it up. I still love them but I am wondering how many more Mothers' Days I can take like the last one? Any suggestions? AVERAGE MOTHER

DEAR AVERAGE: If this is the way your children "honor" their mother on MOTHER'S DAY, it's time you spoke up. Tell them on MOTHER'S DAY the kitchen and nursery are closed. Get yourself all prettied up and let them take YOU out for dinner. It's supposed to be YOUR day—not THEIRS.

DEAR ABBY: May I make a suggestion to how to handle uninvited guests when they "drop in" and spoil your plans. Keep your coat and hat hanging near the door. When the doorbell rings, slip it on in a hurry, and then open the door. If it's someone you do not wish to entertain, tell them how sorry you are that you were just leaving and are already ten minutes late. If it's someone you want to entertain, invite them in and tell them you just got home. It works ten times out of ten. Cordially, R. F. K.

DEAR R. F. K.: And what do you do if you say you are leaving, and the "guest" offers to go with you?

DEAR ABBY: Please tell "LOVES TO DANCE" to tell her mother-in-law to keep her big mouth shut and to keep right on dancing. When my first baby was two weeks overdue I won a Jitterbug contest at the Civic Auditorium and have the pictures to prove it. I am expecting my second baby any day now and am dancing my fool head off.

STILL DANCING

DEAR ABBY: I am a sophomore at college and I feel like a child asking you this question but I'm ashamed to ask anyone else. I've dated lots of fellows and have made out with many of them but I've always kept my emotions under control. But, Abby, there is one fellow in my English Lit. class who makes me flip. Whenever I see him and our eyes meet, I get weak in the knees and have to look away. I can't even think straight when he looks at me. We have nothing much in common (different backgrounds, interests, religion, etc.) and I don't think he's serious about me. I'm sure this isn't "love"—but what is it? DEAR COOKIE: This is "physical attraction"—and unfortunately, often passes for "love." If this is all you have in common—avoid him, because when this feeling takes over, it blows out reason, and that's the way the cookie crumbles.

CONFIDENTIAL TO THE GIRL UPSTAIRS: Don't worry, you'll hear from him again. Hot Air rises.

Are you getting along with your parents? Get ABBY's booklet, "What Every Teenager Wants To Know." Send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, care of this newspaper.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Punishment of Evil Is Lesson-Sermon Sunday

That evil is its own punishment is brought out in Lesson-Sermon on "Everlasting Punishment" to be heard in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

The theme for the sermon is set by the Golden Text from Proverbs (13:21), "Evil pursueth sinners: but to the righteous good shall be repayed."

In "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy states:

"Fear of punishment never made man truly honest. . . . Reason is the most active human faculty. Let that inform the sentiments and awaken the man's dormant sense of moral obligation, and by degrees he will learn the nothingness of the pleasures of human sense and the grandeur and bliss of a spiritual sense, which silences the material or corporeal. Then he not only will be saved, but it saved" (p. 327).

A passage from James (1:12) reads, "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him."

Sermon Topic Is Announced

The Rev. Muriel Haskell, D.D., founder and minister of the Center of Creative Living, will speak on "The Roots of Accomplishment" tomorrow morning at 11 a.m. at the Palm Desert Branch.

This is another in the series of the seven roots of Creative Living and will stress the creative power of man.

Wednesday evening class will discuss the fifth Beatitude, "Blessed are the Merciful," for they shall receive Mercy." There will be another and final class May 13. Sunday Services will continue through May 17.

An expert in the moving van business estimates that 20 per cent of all Americans will be occupying different quarters on Dec. 31, 1959, than they were on Jan. 1.

Spring Lectures To Be Continued By Dr. Johnson

Dr. Barclay Johnson, administrator of education, Church of Religious Science, Los Angeles, will continue his popular series of spring lectures on the practical application of Religious Science to everyday life this Sunday at 11 a.m. in the Village Theater for the Church of Religious Science of Palm Springs.

His subject will be "How to Deal with Guilt."

In this lecture the problem of guilt will be considered and suggestions offered for overcoming the guilt complex and finding wholeness of life.

"The feeling of guilt," Dr. Johnson said, "may run very deep and frequently be so subjective that people are unaware that at the root of their problem is a deep sense of separation."

"The technique for overcoming guilt is the establishment of a sense of right relationship both to man and God."

Dr. Eadie to Be Guest Minister

NORTH PALM SPRINGS—Guest minister for Sunday services in the Community Church of North Palm Springs will be Dr. Douglas G. Eadie, professor of religion at Redlands University.

The professor, an outstanding scholar in the field of religion will replace Rev. Dwight Ball, regular pastor in the church. Reverend Ball is due to return to his pulpit on May 10.
